

The support worker HAS to help you. It's literally their job. They have a legal duty of care.

SAY THIS TO THEM RIGHT NOW:

"I need you to help me. I am in danger. The person here threatened to kill me. I need you to call Link2Home on 1800 152 152 and get me emergency accommodation. If you refuse to help me, I will report you for failing your duty of care. Please help me."

IF THEY REFUSE:

"Give me your full name and your organisation's name. I am reporting this to the NDIS Commission as a failure to protect a participant from harm."

WHAT THEY ARE REQUIRED TO DO:

- Report the death threat - it's a Category 1 Reportable Incident
- Help you access safety - that's their job
- Make calls on your behalf - you have no credit, they must assist

CAN YOU:

1. Show them this screen?
2. Ask them to read this?
3. Get them to come to you right now?

They are your way out. Make them do their job.
