

Fed Court- Blocked - Summary of Letter from the Federal Court of Australia to Dr. Rich McLean:

Date: 7 July 2023

From: Scott Tredwell, General Counsel

To: Dr. Rich McLean

Subject: Response to Request for Whistleblower Status and Protection

The letter addresses Dr. McLean's email dated 30 June 2023, in which he requested whistleblower status and protection, citing substantial evidence of ethical and legal concerns within the Australian Government. The Federal Court had previously responded to similar requests from Dr. McLean on 27 March 2023, following his initial Public Interest Disclosure and subsequent communications.

Key Points:

- The Federal Court acknowledges receipt of Dr. McLean's recent correspondence.
- Dr. McLean's claims and requests for whistleblower protection have been addressed previously, and the Court reiterates that he does not meet the requirements for an internal disclosure.
- The Federal Court has no further assistance to provide and any further correspondence on the same matter will be filed without a response.

The letter concludes that the Federal Court will not revisit Dr. McLean's application.
