

I've been evicted. It wasn't enough that they rejected my health, human, and legal rights, only sent you to do the washing and shoes, excluded everything else I deserve, rejected evidence, and delegitimized my story. Throughout this time, I haven't received any of the care I'm entitled to. Baber is in cahoots with Kel Graham, the corrupt official at the NDIA, who follows Bill Shorten's absurd abuse of me by criminalizing me and forcing me to live in exile. Just great. Who's going to help me now? They kept my finances on such a tight leash that it was impossible to live. When I paid them, they dumped me without reason. My eviction was planned and intended.

My family ran me out, the government excommunicated me, and now I've been forced to flee my home in Victoria to be isolated, abused, neglected, and suffer family violence, with everyone on board. My neighbor, who hears me telling the gang stalkers to fuck off, just yelled across the fence and into my room where I was talking to Crystal: "Hey buddy! Rehab!" – shattering the silence and the privacy I thought I had. Knowing I'm on drugs and evicted, with full conscious knowledge, he's asking me to google rehab as a solution to eviction. He knows I have nowhere to go and criminalizes me for using drugs, complicit in the exact conspiracy that made me take them.

I've been screaming at the computer, and gang stalkers have been interfering with my computer connection and files, stopping the music when I played a whole album. They're out there calling me "poof," "pedophile," and "rapist," saying "they know" as the solution for the character assassination explaining why this is happening to me. Your boss Baber evicted me. I have two weeks to find somewhere to live with no money, abused by the NDIA, the company you work for, which was bribed to keep me financially entrapped and in poverty, listening to corrupt authorities who told lies about me to silence my whistleblowing and discredit me. I published my book. They're all in it. I'm sick of fighting. Now I have no money and no way to get to the shops for food. I'm dying here from neglect and abuse. I'm so stunned that a neighbor or paid contractor just yelled out: "Hey buddy, rehab!" It's an obliteration of my privacy to have audio harassment of voices and people talking to me in the privacy of a torture chamber I exist in.

They have blocked my internet and:

<http://www.onlineregistry.lawlink.nsw.gov.au>

So that I can't lodge an appeal or protest

No justice for me just different treatment victimising a disabled person