

Letter to Politicians and Parties

Subject: Urgent Call for Intervention and Justice

Dear [Recipient's Name],

Good News:

We come to you with a message of hope and a plea for justice. Despite the systemic abuse, neglect, and persecution faced by Dr. Richard William McLean, also known as Barran Dodger, we harbor love and a desire for reconciliation. His harrowing journey is detailed in his autobiography, "Betrayed, Forsaken, Murdered," which sheds light on the profound injustices he has endured at the hands of various Australian government agencies and officials.

Summary of Injustices

Systemic Abuse and Financial Exploitation: Dr. McLean's life has been marked by relentless persecution, financial abuse, and systemic neglect. His efforts to advocate for mental health awareness and fight against discrimination have been met with character assassination, forced homelessness, and deprivation of financial and medical support. Betrayed, Forsaken, Murdered, pages 32-33, pages 138.

Neglect and Human Rights Violations: Dr. McLean has faced severe violations of his human rights, including cruel and inhumane treatment, arbitrary detention, and invasion of privacy. Despite his desperate attempts to seek justice, his complaints have been repeatedly dismissed by various bodies, including the NDIS, DSS, and the Federal Court. Universal Declaration of Human Rights \(UDHR\) Articles 5, 9, and 12, pages 138.

Political and Legal Persecution: Dr. McLean's whistleblowing activities have led to profound victimization and retaliation. He has been subjected to death threats, gang-stalking, and electronic harassment, which have further isolated him from society and left him in a state of constant fear. Despite his qualifications and contributions to society, he has been systematically persecuted and deprived of his basic rights. Complaint Regarding Comcare Rejection, pages 8, Public Interest Disclosure, pages 16.

Documented Evidence of Neglect and Malice: The detailed document available on Barran Dodger's website provides comprehensive evidence of the neglect and malice faced by Dr. McLean. It includes records of systemic failures, unethical conduct by public officials, and the severe impact on his mental and physical well-being. Additional documents further substantiate his claims, highlighting systemic failures and unethical practices by various entities: Document 1, Document 2, Document 3.

Solution to Love

We were once slaves to bureaucracy, but now we come harboring love. The agency of public office should be a source of human justice within the bureaucracy, driven by good intentions and the divine purpose we appeal to. We seek forgiveness for our oppressors and individuals named in this correspondence. I will forgive with divine love, so no one has to harbor ill intentions, hate, or malice. This will save my life and provide a solution beneficial to myself, you, and humanity—a solution of love, equity, and all things good.
