

List of Detriment and Destroying the Scapegoat: My Story of Systemic Persecution and Injustice

I'm Dr. Rich McLean, an Australian queer artist, author, activist, advocate, and academic. Unfortunately, I'm currently facing dire circumstances. I'm homeless, squatting with no financial resources, and dealing with a range of challenges. Additionally, I've been targeted by the Australian Government, seemingly made a scapegoat in a series of events.

Adding to my difficulties, I live with a cognitive brain impairment that significantly impairs my memory and my capacity to plan for my life. As a targeted individual, I've seen my human rights gradually erode away. Access to healthcare is rare and often ineffective. Financially, I've hit rock bottom, having lost settlements, legal cases, work cover, income assistance, and experienced refusals for settlements with my partner, hospitals, malpractice issues, TPD insurance, and rejections from VOCAT. I've also been silenced as a whistleblower and am unable to report crimes to the police.

My current reality is one of constant electronic surveillance, where I'm subjected to subsonic noise laden with derogatory insults. It's a form of harassment that's always present but maintained just below the volume needed to record as evidence. Looking back, I used to be known in niche circles for my work. However, with hindsight, it's evident that I was exploited. Now, I've become a notorious vagrant, left behind and abandoned by those who once knew me.

I am writing this tonight on 28.09.2023 because I have no home, no money, no legal help, no advocate, my money has been taken from me, I'm banned at government agencies, I've been conspired against, brutalized, sexualized as a child, beaten up, incarcerated, intimidated, and threatened with death. I am under surveillance, and I'm a victim of a conspiracy that forced me to attempt suicide.

The intelligently designed poverty and financial abuse have continued years after I was revived from death, placing me in immediate danger to my health, welfare, prosperity, and safety. Family violence underpins my despair, and no government agency has ever admitted or acknowledged that my former fiancé and I were ever together. This is quite simply a delegitimization of the truth and a denial of fact, equating to conspiracy and political corruption that elongates my poverty.

No one will help me here. I have enormous merit and a kind heart, yet I'm exploited, harassed, and abused. I am seeking an emergency intervention from your NGO so that I may simply have a home, food, medicine, shelter, a bed, and an internet connection for my dog and me. I am impolitely requesting that my human dignity be returned to me before it finally kills me. If you can't help me, please don't hurt me anymore. I need help from someone not associated with the Australian government who has an interest in human rights and disability and can either gift or lend me prosperity or offer protection or legal assistance so that I may be reimbursed for my murder and its conspiratorial cover-up. I'm opposed by dozens of powerful, corrupt public officials, lawyers, and politicians.

Please help me by reading on in an extended narrative that explicates my perception with evidence.

My Struggle: Seeking Urgent Intervention

I write this now because of my brutal treatment as a vilified and victimized scapegoat and the fact that I am going to be homeless in seven short days. I hope you may provide an urgent intervention to my housing, either by providing a home or prosperity that I will be able to locate and move into my own home. I can offer, with the enormous detriments detailed on this page, to reimburse you when my detriments are paid—if they are paid. I am also writing to get an acknowledgment of the profound victimization, oppression, and documented human rights abuses that have plagued my life.

This has been documented by my NDIS worker, Tash. However, it has not been signed off with either of the NDIS providers I have been with, nor the NDIS and The Australian Human Rights Commission, whose direct remit is to investigate such breaches, refuses to investigate the report. This is simply another definitive way the Australian government is corrupt regarding my treatment and victimization, with pre-determined outcomes due to my scapegoating.

My Desperation: A Cry for Help

Currently, I am in a desperate situation, racing against the clock to write this story and explain the hurt, pain, and suffering I have been systemically burdened with over the years. I am trying to gain access to a home to exist in for my dog and me. This could be via donation, an investment that will be paid back to you by me when I am reimbursed, forcing an investigation, or by forcing a PID disclosure which would see my brutalized world investigated. I can barely believe what is happening to me, but I acknowledge a malicious conspiracy to pervert the course of justice. It is difficult to accept that your whole life has been based on deceitful lies and that the hate that people transfer to you manifests over years, forcing you into isolation and introspection. It is foreign to me because I actually love all people.

Australia has become a horrible place for me, and so has my psychological profile. I have no money, I am homeless in one week on 3rd October, and I am scared. I am saddened that the world would allow this harm to occur to me over years, and it's almost unfathomable that my blood family utterly rejects me because they have been infiltrated in the conspiracy as people who would intimately support me. I find that my family members, who were already stigmatizing of gay people, even homophobic, and all succumbed to a 'normal' metro-normative mediocre existence, were dominated by the narratives of my oppressors and bought into their hype and lies. I consider this not indicative of critical thought and weak-willed, and they are also jealous of my achievements.

No Recourse: Denied Justice at Every Turn

I have never been able to get a lawyer, I cannot report crimes that have happened to me, including being drugged and raped, to the police, let alone report systemic corruption. I am a rejected whistleblower at IBAC, NDIS, ASIC, The Federal Court, OPMC, The Health Department, APRA, and the Commonwealth Ombudsman. That is mostly because I was not considered a 'public official', but I have provided evidence that I was, because I was employed in a public hospital, and the Federal Court was satisfied with evidence I provided that I was employed by DSS. I am also the former partner of a public official high up in government, which allows me to make a disclosure, and additionally, I was employed under a government contract to provide services for the government, also qualifying me. This means my PIDs should have been acknowledged and investigated, and even as I prove these documents to DSS, who had rejected me for that reason, the authorized agent is now playing the delay, deny, defer game that is the government mantra.

The Long Fight: Exhausted by Systemic Corruption

On (date), I wrote a long letter to the Prime Minister of Australia, and in a country of over 25 million, he responded: yet it did not intervene in a meaningful way. He referred me to Attorney General Mark Dreyfus, who has refused to acknowledge my phone calls and emails, and his office then referred me to two other statutory agencies, ASIS, who investigate ASIO, and the Commonwealth Ombudsman. ASIS already knew of my issue, and the Commonwealth Ombudsman had already rejected my PID and refused further correspondence.

This means that as an individual who is a citizen of this democracy with a clean criminal record, I am blacklisted from an acknowledgment from the top tier down of a meaningful intervention to my plight from any government agency. All domestic advocacy with the Australian Government has now been exhausted. In hindsight, my interactions with dozens of government agencies had been informed by rumor and gossip, set up to fail, pre-determined to lose, and act in any way that could intentionally redact my prosperity.

Financial Abuse: Under Coercive Control

I live under coercive financial control from my former partner, Stefan Iasonidis. He was a millionaire who exploited me and left me homeless, and has refused a settlement for the fair separation of our finances. I was also framed by a very powerful lawyer, Russell Ball, who informs Government policy and advises the Ombudsman, where I am a failed whistleblower and who refuses all correspondence from me. He silenced legitimate evidence before court or tribunal and even the transcript of that evidence at HCC, MHCC, The Police, IBAC, The Victorian Inspectorate, AHPRA, NHPOPC, and the Ombudsman. These two individuals have been powerful nemeses in my life and have acted with enormous wealth, political privilege, and power in order to silence me, erode my human rights, and redact prosperity. They did it in a silent and faceless way that was both deceptive and cowardly.

I believe they are responsible for my situation. No Government agency or statutory organization will admit that the relationship with Iasonidis ever existed. Because of this, it can be said that the government has his back and elongates and emboldens the financial coercive control and family violence that he enacts upon me via the complete lack of settlement that would acknowledge the relationship and be fair and equitable in the parting of ways. Apparently, because of my whistleblowing, he is done for a million dollars in embezzlement for his corrupt finances, and instead of accepting liability, he blames me for his conduct and has used a carrier service to threaten to kill both me and my beautiful husky. I know he would because money was so important to him, and he is greedy. Apart from that, he is a person with intelligence but not a soul, and he needs money to keep him comfortable should his charm fail. He admitted to me he was present at murders when he used to deal cocaine. Frightfully intelligent, he was a master manipulator.

The Architects of My Persecution

As a scapegoat in Australia, I have been foolishly asking for help from lawyers, politicians, and public officials in government organizations for a long time for redress. I am aware that this has been a waste of time and further that decisions about my welfare, prosperity, human rights, and prosperity have been pre-determined, corrupted, and set up to fail, at the least by very powerful and influential figures in former ASIO agent Steve Iasonidis, and lawyer Russell Ball, who informs Government policy and advises the Ombudsman.

Methods of Persecution: A Systematic Attack

The victimization, gaslighting, character assassination, isolation, legal persecution, financial ruin, harassment and intimidation, surveillance monitoring, institutional complicity, social marginalization, physical harm, silencing dissent, propaganda, legal barriers, and general persecution, vilification, and victimization forced my suicide in February 2021. It was deemed 'lethal' in the hospital FOI. That's called a conspiracy to murder. I was found with no observable pulse by accident, unresponsive, and was revived from certain death. After this conspiracy murdered me, the tragedy was met with a general whitewashing of the incident systemically, from Werribee Mercy Hospital up to and including the Commonwealth Ombudsman.

Previously, I had asked for my FOI from the Office of Prime Minister and Cabinet out of curiosity and to see if it would shed light on this impasse I have (OPMC). At first, they asked via OAIC for more time for my FOI because it was 'voluminous' and 'complex' but then turned around and told me 'no documents exist'. This was not only incorrect but a poorly veiled deceptive lie, and this exemplifies the corruption.

The Evidence: My Story and My Life

I would be known to the government and visible on the OPMC's radar for the following reasons:

- I wrote a human rights awarded autobiography on my experience with schizophrenia, published by Allen and Unwin.
- It was awarded SANE's 'book of the year'.
- My former partner, I was engaged to for five years, was an Australian secret service (ASIO) agent and high-ranking public official.

- I was a well-known mental health advocate for people with mental illness and their carers, and spoke hundreds of times on local, state, federal, and international levels in person and on TV and radio, including inside Australian parliament.
- I am an exhibiting artist of more than thirty years and have art in national collections.
- A documentary was made on my life and artwork from the Dax collection on the subject of mental illness recovery and art.
- I was awarded a Human Rights certificate from VHREOCV.
- I had a position as an illustrator and news graphics artist for both The Herald Sun and The Age newspapers, which obviously had a public persona.
- I had been having trouble garnering a financial determination at AFCA, which eventually banned me.
- I had real troubles getting my human rights acknowledged at AHRC.
- I had previously written to the former attorney general Michaelia Cash about systemic corruption at AHRC and AFCA and correctly predicted my WorkCover case that was to come before the AAT was pre-determined to fail as well.
- I had had a complaint about a GP, and this was not acknowledged at different state and federal agencies.
- I had been an international traveler in my life and was sent home from the UK when I was refused a visa over applying to work.
- Reading back over this, Victoria police had a negative view of my character.

Looking back, especially in hindsight, I have had my prosperity consciously and maliciously redacted from me in the form of any settlement, legal battles, insurances, compensations, winnings, marital break-up, or otherwise. The methodology to do this was systemically and politically orchestrated, and its purpose was to rob me of power and comfort and make life an unyielding financial challenge. Someone or something had the intention to make me suffer.

The Financial Ruin: What I Lost

Here is some of what I lost in financial ruin that has been years long in its abuse. In this, it can be acknowledged that my intelligently designed poverty is not the result of a character flaw nor weakness on my part but the result of prolonged and sustained attack on me as an individual:

- Unfair termination settlement from The Age newspaper.
- WorkCover settlement from 2004.
- Incorrect TPD payment from 2008.
- Medical malpractice settlement in 2017.
- HCF income assist settlement in 2021.
- WorkCover settlement in 2021.
- Provisional payments from WorkCover 2021.

- Business insurance payout 2021.
- Former partner settlement.
- Settlement for my cognitive brain impairment sustained inside a hospital that owed a duty of care.
- Sue for my business website maliciously destroyed.
- Claim for loss after my worldly possessions were destroyed.
- Detriments of over 2 million after being banned at AFCA.
- Detriments of over 1.5 million after insurance settlement was free kicked to opposition at AHRC.
- Money to pay for my accommodation blocked from arriving at the NDIS.
- Child sexual abuse redress from DSS delayed, denied, and deferred.
- VOCAT case for child sexual abuse cited by magistrate as 'doomed'.
- VOCAT case for violent affray in which I was hospitalized with broken bones and slashes for intervening and sticking up for a member of the public rejected.
- Compensated for being run over by a car (most likely a government vehicle).
- Compensation for being violently attacked inside a hospital by a not so undercover government thug.
- Compensation for a provable conspiracy to pervert the course of justice causing death.
- Compensation for the whitewashing of that tragedy by dozens of high-ranking public officials who had a responsibility to act ethically with the public services act.

The Architects of My Persecution: Their Methods

Destroying me as a scapegoat had its genesis in at least two or three individuals, and they both have government backing and support. Steve Iasonidis, my former fiancé and ASIO employee, and Russell Ball, who informs government policy and advises the Ombudsman. In addition, I lost my virginity to Debbie Morgan when I was nineteen on an oval at the local police and fire brigade celebrations. I was questioning my sexuality at the time, and I believe that she had the support of the police not to pursue rape charges but to excommunicate me and label me derogatorily as gay, and that I had sexually assaulted her due to my questioning and insecurity about my naive sexuality. I was met with gossip, slurs, homophobia, and alluding comments regarding the whole issue. It affected my family and friends, and at the time, I experienced 'auditory hallucinations' at my place of work, and additionally, a man at my work made indirect but obvious references to the event. Between these three genesis points, it would create a ripple effect in which my life would become one where the world saw and treated me differently. It encouraged isolation, withdrawal, and exacerbated an already existing vulnerability to psychosis. To add insult to a difficult life, individuals then learned of my paranoia and neuroses and exploited that in power plays that always got a reaction of me freaking out in distress, unable to comprehend that my company was intimidating, teasing, and being cruel to me. I was gobsmacked, and my reality suffered aberrations. I was trusting and innocent, and I discovered a world in which I was exploited and taken advantage of. I became a show pony for being mentally ill and enjoyed the attention, something that was lacking growing up in a family that had already toxically scapegoated me.

These three people were the architects of my persecution and involved targeting and victimizing me to shift blame, divert attention from real issues or problems, or consolidate power. This destructive process, which was prolonged, was malicious and had a conscious agenda to cause me harm, and it included a combination of psychological, social, and institutional tactics. Here are some of the ways they did it, with examples from my life:

Character Assassination

Attacking my reputation, credibility, and character through spreading false rumors, misinformation, or propaganda. This can be done through media, social networks, or public statements.

- Allen and Unwin exploited me for my autobiography, Recovered, Not Cured.
- They let my own words sabotage my reputation and I believe set me up with public interviews so that I would become known yet secretly hated.
- Herald Sun vilified my book and me, leading to my job loss at The Age.
- My illness was identified at the Dax Collection, and my art was tokenistically treated.
- At one stage, the media came to my home and interviewed me for TV when I was high and unwell.
- RRR FM interviewed me when I was clearly not coping with Richard Watts.
- The drug debate on SBS asked live on air if I do ecstasy, even though I said I wanted to talk about marijuana and psychosis.
- I was used as a pawn at the cannabis and mental health forum and paraded as a mad person from the use of drugs.

Isolation

Cutting me off from social networks, allies, or support systems, making me vulnerable and easier to target. This involved social ostracism, shunning, or discrediting my relationships.

- I was banned from AFCA.
- Rejected by AHRC.
- Ignored by MHLC.
- Ignored by VMIAC.
- Ignored by DDLC.
- Ignored by all lawyers.
- My family was intercepted. For example, my brother said, 'I don't know if he's gay' when prompted with a disparaging tone.

- Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter accounts were disabled.
- My so-called friends in Queensland ganged up on me.
- A magistrate threw out my VOCAT case for child sexual abuse.
- My VOCAT case for a violent affray was rejected, identifying me as the principal aggressor.
- After Steve left, he denied a settlement and set people against me.
- I was given $100,000 by Mark Eng, a former landlord, and then demanded to give it back.
- They threatened to ruin my reputation in my mental health advocacy work because the owner was said to have been unwell.
- My police LEAP file detailed crimes I'd never heard of from places I never traveled.
- My website, www.richmclean.com.au, was maliciously destroyed by Micron21.
- My evidence was silenced at HCC, MHCC, The Police, IBAC, The Victorian Inspectorate, AHPRA, NHPOPC, and the Ombudsman.
- I was rejected from HCF income assistance and an AVO.
- Rejected by Victoria Legal Aid.
- Rejected by family.
- My issues were ignored by the police.
- There was a cover-up about my suicide attempt.
- My evidence of a malpractice case was silenced.
- My tragic suicide attempt was rejected by the Ombudsman.
- Rejection from medical clinics.
- Rejected by all of my friends.
- Rejected by my family.
- Non-validation by all government agencies of my relationship with Steve Iasonidis.
- My evidence was silenced before a government tribunal.

Gaslighting

Manipulating me into doubting my own perceptions, sanity, or experiences. This led me to question my own reality and become more dependent on the perpetrator for validation.

- Audio oppression and harassment.
- Psychometric profiling of my name, mobile number, and date of birth by government agencies.
- Friends' and families' voices inside my bedroom with persecution and hate in their voice.
- Going way back to the references on TV about personal issues.
- Consistent themes of listening to lyrics in songs that had personal significance.
- Non-validation of my relationship with ASIO agent Steve Iasonidis.
- Exploring things in me that were vulnerable.
- Friends giving me drugs that would cause distress and psychosis.

- Setting me up to fail at government agencies.
- Gang-stalking me through shopping centers.
- Kicking me out of England.

Legal Persecution

Initiating legal actions, such as frivolous lawsuits, arrests, or investigations against me. These actions were based on fabricated or exaggerated charges to undermine my credibility and freedom.

- I could never get a lawyer.
- John Boyle deceived me.
- Russell Ball blacklisted me from any legal help.
- I was banned from calling WorkSafe.
- I was banned from calling ComCare.
- I was run out of town as an innocent fugitive by Victoria Police.
- I was put on a mental health treatment order.
- I was force-injected with anti-psychotics for 'ingrained delusions of persecution,' which were real.
- I was surveilled outside my home in Footscray.
- I was framed as an extortionist by Russell Ball.
- My VOCAT case for child sexual abuse was rejected as 'doomed.'
- I was intercepted and followed across Scruff and Grindr with people warning me 'they're there, can't say anything.'
- My computer was intercepted, and passwords were changed.
- My phone was stolen.
- People were sent to have sex with me as a pre-arranged infiltration.
- My friends were identified from who I call, and they were turned against me.
- Steve knew how I communicated on my private phone, telling me he could hack an Apple with a 'skin,' and I was perplexed by how he knew this.
- My phone was stolen.
- People on drugs who had ulterior motives were sent to intimidate, exploit, rip off, or antagonize me.

Financial Ruin

Sabotaging my financial stability, assets, or livelihood through legal or economic means. This included freezing bank accounts, seizing assets, or cutting off my sources of income.

- Sabotage of my HCF income assist insurance payment.
- Sabotage of my workers' compensation in 2004.
- Sabotage of my hospital settlement for brain injury.
- Sabotage of being heard fairly at AFCA, then being banned.
- Sabotage of my conciliation settlement at AHRC with Australian Super and TAL.
- Sabotage of my website, www.richmclean.com.au, by Micron21, a - government-linked company.

- Sabotage of getting justice for that at the telecommunications industry ombudsman.
- Sabotage of getting justice for that at SBFEO.
- Sabotage of getting justice at business.gov.au.

Harassment and Intimidation

Engaging in campaigns of harassment, intimidation, or threats to create fear and psychological distress. This included online harassment, stalking, or sending threatening messages.

- Harassment on Grindr—Steve.
- Harassment on Grindr and Scruff—messages.
- Voices outside my home in Footscray.
- V2K in my home when the computer was on.
- Friends who were criminals came to harass me.
- I was attacked in Footscray.
- I was violently attacked by an underworld thug in a hospital.
- I was run over by a car while escaping police by the secret service.
- Voices in my hostel lamented about me being a rapist.

Surveillance

Monitoring my activities, communications, and movements to gather information that could be used against me or to control my behavior.

- Surveillance on Grindr and Scruff.
- Surveillance in the street.
- Gang-stalking me.
- Monitoring my computer.
- Wi-Fi intercepts for 'secret hospital records.'
- Hacking my phone.
- Exposing all my passwords in a targeted data hack.
- A computer technician who came over, placed monitoring in my computer, broke it, then left without being paid.

Institutional Complicity

Manipulating or coercing institutions, such as law enforcement, legal systems, or government agencies, to support the persecution or cover up wrongdoing. This involved corrupt officials or a culture of silence.

- Insurance Ombudsman.
- Health Minister Greg Hunt.
- Current Health Minister.
- Mental Health Minister Gabrielle Williams.

Social Marginalization

Exploiting societal prejudices or biases to marginalize me based on my identity, beliefs, or affiliations. This led to exclusion, discrimination, or violence.

- I was labeled a 'poofteer,' and the police were in on it.
- I confidently self-identified with schizophrenia and am now vilified for it.
- I was prejudiced against for having no job at the moment.
- I have been identified as someone who complains a lot, now ignored.
- I'm either 'too mad' or 'not mad enough,' depending on who has the money.
- I've been labeled with schizophrenia because it is mentioned historically.

Physical Harm

Using physical violence or threats of violence to harm me physically, emotionally, or psychologically. This is an extreme form of persecution.

- I was violently attacked in Footscray.
- I was violently attacked inside Werribee Mercy Hospital.
- I was run over by a car while on the run from police.
- I was cuffed and manhandled by police and thrown into a divvy van.
- Police violently broke into my home.
- A violent criminal kicked in my garage wall and entered my home.
- Tim Logan came over, causing trouble, wanting me to hit him—I threw him out.
- Police threatened me with a gun and capsicum spray.
- My dog, Crystal, sustained an injury while I was at the shops and had to be taken to the vet.
- I was drugged and raped by Iasonidis.
- My whole home's contents were destroyed and taken to the tip.
- I had been sexualized as a child.

Silencing Dissent

Suppressing my dissenting voice or whistleblower claims to ensure my grievances were not heard or validated.

- They have rejected all my PIDs.
- They destroyed my website.
- Not one government agency will acknowledge my past relationship.
- I was not validated by any lawyer.
- I was not validated by any politician.
- I could not report systemic crimes to the police.
- I was left homeless with zero intervention.

Propaganda and Disinformation

Controlling the narrative through propaganda, censorship, or control of media outlets to shape public perception and manipulate information in favor of the persecutor.

- Drug Sabotage: They allowed me drugs because it was destroying me.

- Social Media Censorship: They silenced my Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn accounts, effectively cutting off my voice and connection to others.
- Website Deletion: They deleted my website, www.richmclean.com.au, a platform that housed my work and narrative.
- Historical Erasure: They deleted the whistleblowing page, even on the historical web, erasing critical records of my experiences.
- Media Manipulation: I used to think narratives on Australian-made shows were referencing me. I even believed bands like Cruel Sea, Midnight Oil, Justin Townes Earle, Powderfinger, Silverchair, and Paul Kelly wrote songs about me.
- Legal Silencing: I can't speak to the Ombudsman, banned from contacting HCF, and AVOs have been placed on me by HCG and my parents.
- Isolation by Legal Means: I have not been able to have an authentic conversation with police, report being drugged and raped by Steve Iasonidis to federal police, or have my suicide attempt acknowledged—it has been whitewashed.
- Mental Health Stigmatization: I am vilified as mentally ill when the reality is that I'm stressed from being broke. My poverty is not a consequence of poor choices but a designed outcome.

Legal Barriers

Implementing legal barriers that make it difficult for the scapegoat to seek justice, such as restrictive laws or policies that limit their ability to defend themselves or access legal remedies.

- Lack of Legal Representation: I have never had a lawyer who truly advocated for me. The one I did have, John Boyle, exploited me and deceived me, causing more harm.
- Systematic Silencing: Russell Ball used his power to silence me, and after Monash Legal Centre initially took on my case with Steve, they dumped me.
- Corruption in Legal Processes: Tim Gos from AFCA, who was a lawyer, knew what he was doing was wrong but acted against me. Kate Watch, a government lawyer, also acted with impunity to destroy me.
- Pre-Determined Outcomes: Member Purnell presided over a pantomime hearing that was pre-determined to fail, reflecting a system rigged against me.

Targeting Vulnerable Groups

Persecuting not only the scapegoat but also individuals or groups associated with them, further isolating and weakening their support network.

The document outlines various methods of torture and persecution experienced by the author, who claims systematic abuse and manipulation across multiple platforms and environments. These methods include:

1. Attacking Reputation and Credibility: The author alleges exploitation by various media outlets and public forums that damaged his reputation and mental health, including being set up in interviews to sabotage his public image and credibility.
2. Isolation: The author describes being cut off from social networks, legal aids, family, and friends, further exacerbated by the disabling of social media accounts and rejection from community and legal organizations.
3. Gaslighting: Instances where the author's perceptions and sanity were manipulated, causing him to doubt his own reality. This included harassment that mimicked familiar voices and public media seemingly referencing his personal issues, adding to his psychological distress.
4. Legal Persecution: The author experienced numerous legal challenges, including frivolous lawsuits, bans from seeking legal recourse, and being blacklisted from receiving any legal help, contributing to a sense of helplessness and victimization.
5. Financial Ruin: Allegations of sabotage affecting financial stability through various means like denied insurance payments, blocked settlements, and manipulation of financial assets, leading to significant economic hardship.
6. Harassment and Intimidation: Reports of ongoing harassment, both online and in person, stalking, and receiving threats, which created an environment of fear and constant anxiety.
7. Surveillance: Claims of being monitored on social media, in public, and through personal devices, contributing to a lack of privacy and increased paranoia.
8. Institutional Complicity: The author accuses various institutions, including legal, healthcare, and governmental agencies, of either directly participating in or covering up wrongdoing, thereby denying him justice or recourse.
9. Social Marginalization: Utilizing societal biases to further marginalize him based on identity, mental health status, and socio-economic position.
10. Physical Harm: Experiencing direct physical violence in various settings, including public attacks and assault within healthcare facilities, leading to physical and emotional trauma.
11. Silencing Dissent: Efforts to suppress his claims and grievances through censorship, control of media narratives, and destruction of web content related to his cases.
12. Propaganda and Disinformation: Control of information to manipulate public perception and isolate him from potential support, including altering digital content and public narratives that discredit his experiences.
13. Legal Barriers: Encountering significant obstacles within the legal system that prevent access to justice, including restrictive laws and biased legal proceedings.

14. Targeting Vulnerable Groups: Extending persecution to associates and groups connected to him, further isolating him and undermining any support network.

Overall, the document portrays a distressing scenario where the author experiences systematic abuse designed to undermine his credibility, isolate him socially, and exhaust him financially and psychologically. This alleged persecution spans several aspects of his life, creating a compounded effect that significantly impairs his ability to lead a normal life and seek justice.
