A legal affidavit is a sworn statement of fact that holds significant weight in legal proceedings. Here's why it is absolutely necessary for a legal affidavit to be acknowledged:

1. Formal Legal Evidence: An affidavit serves as formal evidence in legal cases. By acknowledging an affidavit, the legal system recognizes the statements within as potentially true and allows them to be used in court proceedings. Without acknowledgment, the affidavit may not be admitted as evidence, weakening the case or rendering it inadmissible.
2. Sworn Testimony: When a person signs an affidavit, they do so under oath, affirming that the information provided is true to the best of their knowledge. Acknowledgment of the affidavit by a legal authority (such as a notary public or a judicial officer) formalizes this oath, making the person legally accountable for the truthfulness of their statements. False statements in an affidavit can lead to charges of perjury.
3. Legal Validity: An acknowledged affidavit gains legal validity and can be used to support claims, defenses, or motions in legal proceedings. Courts and tribunals require affidavits to be properly acknowledged to ensure that the statements are taken seriously and that the document meets the necessary legal standards.
4. Accountability: Acknowledging an affidavit ensures that the person making the statement understands the legal implications of providing false information. It creates a formal record that can be referenced and relied upon during legal proceedings, holding the affiant accountable for their declarations.
5. Supporting Judicial Processes: Legal affidavits are often used in various judicial processes, such as filing motions, obtaining warrants, or supporting claims in civil and criminal cases. An acknowledged affidavit provides the necessary foundation for these legal actions to proceed effectively.
6. Protection of Rights: For the affiant, having an affidavit acknowledged ensures that their testimony is officially recorded and considered in the legal process. This can be crucial in protecting their legal rights, ensuring that their voice is heard and that the facts they present are given due consideration.

7. Facilitating Legal Resolutions: Acknowledged affidavits can help in reaching

7. Facilitating Legal Resolutions. Acknowledged affidavits can help in reaching legal resolutions more efficiently. By providing clear, sworn statements of fact, affidavits can clarify issues, support legal arguments, and help the court or tribunal make informed decisions.

In summary, the acknowledgment of a legal affidavit is crucial because it ensures that the document is recognized as legitimate evidence, holds the affiant accountable, and supports the integrity of the legal process. Without this acknowledgment, the affidavit may not have the necessary legal standing, potentially compromising the case or legal matter it is intended to support.

Subject: Request for Immediate Investigation of NSW Police Force Misconduct

Dear Team Leader,

I acknowledge receipt of your correspondence dated 24 August 2024, regarding my complaint about the NSW Police Force (Reference: CASE20247217/3). I am writing to formally request that the LECC take direct action and investigate my complaint, rather than referring it to the NSW Police Force. Given the serious nature of the issues I have raised, I believe that an independent investigation by the LECC is both necessary and appropriate.

Supporting Evidence

The information contained in my initial complaint outlines multiple incidents involving NSW Police Force officers that suggest a systemic pattern of misconduct, harassment, and neglect. The attached evidence further corroborates these claims and demonstrates the profound impact this treatment has had on my life.

1. Systemic Neglect and Harassment

My autobiography, "Betrayed, Forsaken, Murdered: The Harrowing Journey of Dr. Richard William McLean" (pages 32-33), documents numerous instances where I have been subjected to arbitrary actions and systematic neglect by the police, contributing to my deteriorating mental health and forced homelessness. See Evidence Folder.

2. Arbitrary Detention and Intimidation

On multiple occasions, I have been subjected to arbitrary detention and intimidation tactics, which have exacerbated my already vulnerable position. This is documented in my correspondence regarding the NSW Police Force, particularly in connection with attempts to report crimes and seek protection (pages 138-140). See Evidence Folder.

3. Breach of Human Rights

The treatment I have received clearly violates several articles of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, particularly those concerning the protection against cruel, inhuman, or degrading treatment. The LECC's own mandate includes ensuring that police actions adhere to such standards, which in this case, they have not. See Evidence Folder.

4. Evidence of Police Complicity

I have reason to believe that certain NSW Police officers have been complicit in actions designed to harm and intimidate me, including the forced relocation and harassment I have endured. This has been substantiated through various documents and communications, all of which are detailed in my evidence folder. See Evidence Folder.

Given the gravity of these allegations and the evidence provided, I urge the LECC to reconsider its decision to refer this matter back to the NSW Police Force. An internal investigation by the police is likely to be insufficient and may fail to address the broader systemic issues at play. I believe that only an independent investigation by the LECC can ensure accountability and justice.

I request that the LECC use its special powers to thoroughly investigate these matters, as they clearly involve systemic issues that affect not only myself but potentially others who may be subjected to similar treatment.

Please confirm receipt of this request and inform me of the next steps in the investigation.

Thank you for your attention to this urgent matter.

Sincerely,

Barran Dodger

Affidavit for NCAT, VOCAT, and NSW Police

Affidavit of Barran Dodger

I, Barran Dodger, formerly known as Dr. Richard William McLean, of 3 Waringo Street, Sablea, NSW, solemnly and sincerely affirm as follows:

1. Background and Identity

I am a targeted individual of the Australian federal government, systematically persecuted, harassed, and marginalized in a coordinated effort to undermine my legal, human, and financial rights. My persecution involves multiple government agencies and officials, including but not limited to the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), the Department of Social Services (DSS), and other government bodies.

2. Systemic Persecution and Neglect

I have been subjected to systemic abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation by various government agencies and officials. This persecution has placed my life at imminent risk, exacerbating my mental and physical health issues.

Supporting Evidence:

- NDIS DSS Allegations PID.pdf, Page 24: Details the rejection of my claims and lack of protection despite imminent risk.
- 19.08.2024 Affidavit for NCAT, Page 23: Highlights the inconsistencies with NDIS principles, emphasizing my homelessness and neglect.

3. Professional and Financial Destruction

My professional career and financial stability have been deliberately sabotaged. I have faced financial exploitation, professional isolation, and relentless harassment, leading to a suicide attempt and further financial abuse post-recovery.

Supporting Evidence:

- Betrayed, Forsaken, Murdered: The Harrowing Journey of Barran Dodger, Page 49: Documents the destruction of my career and personal assets.
- Urgent Demand for Intervention and Justice, Page 6: Illustrates the financial and professional destruction I have endured.

4. Blocking of Essential Services by NDIS and Kel Graham

Despite being evicted from Aligned Community Care, which I had already fired due to their exploitation and financial abuse, Kel Graham of NDIS has blocked other providers from assisting me. This act has further exacerbated my poverty and homelessness, demonstrating a deliberate effort to keep me in abject conditions.

Supporting Evidence:

- 19.08.2024 Affidavit for NCAT, Page 29: Details Kel Graham's actions in blocking essential services, despite professional recommendations for my support.

5. Legal Persecution and Surveillance

I have been legally persecuted and subjected to continuous surveillance and harassment. High-level government officials have engaged in a covert conspiracy to destroy my life, denying me justice and financial restitution.

Supporting Evidence:

- Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013, Pages 68, 70: Confirms my whistleblower status and details the systemic rejection and surveillance I have endured.
- Betrayed, Forsaken, Murdered, Page 279: Outlines the legal persecution and exile I have faced.

6. Violence and Intimidation

I have been violently attacked by covert government thugs, and my life has been threatened multiple times by individuals with government ties. Despite these threats, no public official, lawyer, or politician acknowledges my situation.

Supporting Evidence:

- Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013, Pages 68, 70: Documents the violence and threats against me.
- Betrayed, Forsaken, Murdered, Page 49: Details my experiences of violence and intimidation.

7. Character Assassination and False Allegations

I have been subjected to a sustained campaign of character assassination, falsely accused of being a rapist, pedophile, extortionist, and a threat to national security. These baseless accusations have been used to justify the ongoing persecution and harassment I have endured.

- I categorically deny these allegations. I am neither a rapist, a pedophile, an extortionist, nor a threat to national security.
- If any of these allegations hold merit, I challenge the authorities to arrest me and present the evidence in a court of law, where it can be cross-examined and scrutinized in accordance with the principles of justice.

8. Request for Immediate Intervention and Protection

Given the imminent risk to my life and the documented systemic corruption, I request that NCAT, VOCAT, and NSW Police immediately intervene and provide me with protection, pending compensation for the damages I have suffered.

Supporting Evidence:
