Don't read this. Nothing at the bottom. Come, please, I have asked you to look at the bottom of the page.

A cherry syrup and soda with ice and umbrella - Mmm! said Professor Flitwick, smacking his lips. So you'll be the red currant rum, Minister. Thank you, Rosmerta, m'dear, said Fudge's voice. Lovely to see you again, I must say. Have one yourself, won't you? Come and join us Well, thank you very much, Minister. Harry watched the glittering heels march away and back again. His heart was pounding uncomfortably in his throat. Why hadn't it occurred to him that this was the last weekend of term for the teachers too? And how long were they going to sit there? His heart was pounding uncomfortably in his throat. Why hadn't it occurred to him that this was the last weekend of term for the teachers too? And how long were they going to sit there? He needed time to sneak back into Honeydukes if he wanted to return to school tonight.... Hermione's leg gave a nervous twitch next to him.

Who's that? he said, blinking down at them, trying to make out their faces. What are you doing in here, all alone? They looked at one another, surprised.

Oh, it's you, Ronan, said Hagrid in relief. How are yeh? He walked forward and shook the centaur's hand.

*They're in Azkaban, said Sirius shortly.
Harry looked at him curiously.*
