

Work safe numbers claim evidence

The document is a formal letter from WorkSafe Victoria addressed to Mr. McLean. It acknowledges the receipt of his online complaint regarding his workers' compensation claim managed by DXC Claims Management Services, specifically Claim #09-06-0103251. The complaint has been logged in WorkSafe's system with reference number 9905098 and assigned to Helen, a Service Review Analyst, who will contact him within 10 business days. The letter outlines the responsibilities of both WorkSafe and Mr. McLean in handling the complaint. WorkSafe commits to handling the complaint professionally, keeping Mr. McLean informed, providing reasons for decisions, and treating him with respect. Mr. McLean is expected to provide a clear outline of his concerns and desired solution, supply all relevant information, inform WorkSafe of any new facts or if he no longer needs their intervention, cooperate with the representatives, and treat them with respect. For any queries, Mr. McLean can contact their office or email the Service Improvement & Complaints team. The letter is signed by Deanne, the Complaints Coordinator.
