Dear Dr McLean

I acknowledge receipt of your email below, and those you sent on Thursday 27 October 2022.

If you have any concerns about your safety, you should contact the police.
In respect of the other matters you have raised, ASIC's position is set out in my email of 27 October 2022.

Kind regards

Dear Dr McLean,

I refer to the two emails dated 30 September 2022 you sent to the email address pid@asic.gov.au (attached for your reference).

While not expressly clear on the face of your emails, I have proceeded on the assumption that your intention is to lodge a disclosure under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 (PID Act).

It is unclear to me whether or not you are, or have been a public official within the meaning of the PID Act. On the assumption that you were intending to lodge a disclosure under the PID Act, and that your disclosure is related to, and concerns the person named in your email as a former or current employee of the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation (ASIO), your public interest disclosure does not appear to relate to the Australian Securities & Investments Commission.

Accordingly, if you wish to take this matter any further, you would need to lodge your public interest disclosure with an Authorised Officer of either ASIO or the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security (IGIS). Alternatively, you may seek to lodge your public interest disclosure with the Commonwealth Ombudsman.

Information about how to lodge a public interest disclosure with those agencies are below:

- ASIO: Accountability | ASIO
- IGIS: Make a Complaint | IGIS
- Commonwealth Ombudsman: Public Interest Disclosure - Commonwealth Ombudsman

Kind regards
