Dear Dr McLean

We write in response to your email of 30 May 2023 concerning your complaint about the delay in response to the disclosure you sought to make to the National Disability Insurance Agency on 18 April 2023.

As you may be aware, the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 (PID Act) requires that the authorised officer must use his or her best endeavours to decide the allocation of a disclosure within 14 days after it is made. We apologise that, despite best endeavours, an allocation decision in response to your disclosure was not made within 14 days.

The response was not made within 14 days as additional time was required to review and consider each of the significant number of documents you provided with your disclosure, and in response to the authorised officer's further enquiries. I apologise if the timeframe inconvenienced you.

Please note, if you are not satisfied with this response to your complaint, you may contact the Commonwealth Ombudsman to discuss your options:

- Email: PID@ombudsman.gov.au
- Call: 1300 362 072

Please note that any future correspondence about this matter will be read and filed without acknowledgement or response.

Kind regards

Public Interest Disclosure Team
National Disability Insurance Agency
