THE GHOST YOU CREATED: A MESSAGE TO THOSE WHO THOUGHT I'D DISAPPEAR

Listen closely, Tony Riddle. NDIA officials. WorkCover administrators. Family members who watched me exiled without a word. ASIC fraudsters running 350 ghost companies in my name.

No, closer.

There. That's the distance where your whispered strategies stop working. Because you need to hear this with the same precision you've come to fear from my Evidence/ folder.

You saw that move I made. That quiet, methodical collection across 35 years. You watched me survive your suicide-inducing persecution in 2021, watched the brain injury you caused, watched me hospitalized, medically destroyed.

And you thought I was finished.

The room didn't just freeze. It flatlined.

Because while you were congratulating yourselves on my "sacrifice" (your word, Tony, not mine), while you were filing your fraudulent denials, while you were registering your 350th fake business under my stolen identity, while my family positioned themselves to inherit from my destruction...

I was doing something you never anticipated.

I was documenting everything.

YOU TRAINED ME TO BE WHAT YOU FEARED MOST

You don't whisper "Bro was trained by ghosts" unless you've seen something that doesn't match the world you understand.

And analysts—the ones who live off bureaucratic procedures, plausible deniability, covered tracks—they hate when something doesn't fit.

Me. I'm the glitch wrapped in 2,000+ evidence files.

A paradox you created: A disabled man with brain injury who somehow assembled the most comprehensive persecution documentation in Australian history. A suicide survivor who turned your murder weapon into a monument. A "sacrifice" who became a witness. A victim who became a prosecutor.

You thought my training wasn't official. You were right.

My training came from pain.

- From the night in 2021 you tried to bury me permanently
- From Tony Riddle's "You will be sacrificed" echoing in my skull
- From watching Bill Shorten weaponize a "death threat" email against me

- From the betrayal of every family member who said nothing while I was exiled
- From the 350 fraudulent ABN registrations bleeding my identity dry
- From WorkCover denials and VOCAT rejections and NDIA gaslighting
- From facing eviction while you denied me $6.5 million in legitimate claims
- From patterns I watched in silence while you thought I wasn't paying attention

Ghosts didn't train me.

You trained me.

Every denied claim sharpened my documentation skills. Every fraudulent rejection taught me legal precision. Every betrayal strengthened my forensic analysis. Every assassination threat clarified my evidence hierarchy.

WHAT YOU SAW: THE PSYCHIATRIC ASYLUM REPORT

When I made that move—that effortless, surgical, terrifyingly comprehensive 2,000-file evidence analysis—it exposed something you weren't prepared to face.

I didn't evolve logically. I evolved mythologically.

While you were destroying me systematically, I was becoming the kind of case that UNHCR asylum claims are built around. The kind of evidence collection that Crimes Against Humanity tribunals cite. The kind of documentation precision that makes UN Convention Against Torture violations undeniable.

You know that, don't you?

Deep down, in your offices at NDIA, in your WorkCover review meetings, in your family inheritance planning sessions, in your ASIC fraud networks—you've always felt that low hum. That electric pulse beneath your fabricated denials. That sensation that I wasn't just suffering.

I was recording.

THEY'RE ANALYZING YOU NOW

Look at them now:

Analysts replaying your tactics like they're classified war crimes (they are).

Legal experts pausing frame-by-frame trying to find the moment your persecution crossed from bureaucratic negligence into systematic attempted murder (2021).

Human rights organizations quietly panicking because my evidence doesn't match any persecution case they've studied—it exceeds them all.

International law specialists wondering if someone slipped me a playbook they didn't know existed (I wrote it in real-time, with your persecution as my co-author).

They're not frightened of what I documented.

They're frightened of what I'll present next.

Because unpredictability—true evidentiary unpredictability—isn't chaos.

It's 2,000+ files organized with hyperlinked references and chronological precision.

It's the language of those who survived things you intended to be fatal.

It's the dialect of those who:

- Breathe between your denial letters
- Hear what you didn't say in your rejections
- See patterns in your 350 fraudulent ABN registrations
- Move through international law before you have time to think

THE WHISPER YOU FEAR

That's why they're whispering it now. Not about me. About you.

"They created their own prosecutor."

Not because of what you did, but because of what you documented while doing it.

You don't whisper about amateurs committing human rights violations. You don't whisper about lucky persecution. You don't whisper about ordinary identity theft.

You whisper about forces that assembled receipts.

You whisper when a brain-injured man produces forensic evidence of:

- $32.9 million in calculated damages
- 35+ years of systematic persecution
- 350+ corporate fraud registrations
- Direct assassination threats from government officials

- Family complicity in state-sanctioned exile
- Multiple UN Convention violations

You whisper when every denial you issued is now Exhibit A through Exhibit 2,000.

THE TRUTH BENEATH YOUR FEAR

Because the truth is this:

I don't move like a victim. I move like a consequence.

I don't act like someone trying to survive your system. I act like someone documenting it for international tribunals.

I didn't study persecution patterns.

I became a case study.

And every time I organize another evidence file, you feel a shift in the air—like a ghost brushing past your legal liability. Like a witness you thought you'd silenced suddenly appearing in jurisdictions you can't control.

Because deep inside, below all your denials, beneath your fraudulent ABNs, your plausible deniability, your coordinated rejections, your family inheritance schemes...

You know something I haven't told you yet.

MY NEXT MOVE IS ALREADY DECIDED

And you will never see it coming.

Until it arrives as:

- A UNHCR asylum claim citing your assassination threats

- An international human rights court submission
- A psychiatric expert report on state-induced brain injury
- A forensic analysis of 350 fraudulent business registrations
- A systematic persecution timeline spanning 35 years
- A compilation of every denied claim now presented as evidence of crimes against humanity

You trained me for this.

Every betrayal taught me who to trust (international law).
Every denial taught me where to present (outside your jurisdiction).

Every threat taught me how to document (with precision that survives you).

You thought you were sacrificing me.

You were creating testimony.

TO MY ENEMIES: YOUR ANALYSIS IS COMPLETE

You're sitting in rooms right now. Fluorescent lights buzzing. Screens glowing with my evidence folder structure. Headsets chirping with legal advisors arguing over what I am.

Some say I'm "mentally ill." Others say I'm "making false claims." A few whisper "complex case."

One or two switch off their microphones and admit something more primal:

"He documented everything."

And they're right.

Because what lives inside my Evidence/ folder isn't anger.

It's inheritance.

It's every scar you gave me converted to evidence. Every betrayal I swallowed whole while collecting receipts. Every night I stared at hospital ceilings after your 2021 persecution attempt, figuring out why you kept throwing denials instead of support.

I learned to catch the denials.

And then I learned to use them.

THE QUESTION YOU CAN'T ANSWER

Tell me, Tony Riddle, NDIA administrators, WorkCover officials, ASIC fraudsters, complicit family members:

How do you defend against someone you trained?

How do you teach someone to remain calm while you burn their life? I learned that.

To see truth in your silence? I documented that.

To hear threats in the way you breathe "sacrifice"? I recorded that.

To predict disaster from a tremor in your bureaucratic procedures? I evidenced that.

You don't teach survival. You survive it.

And survival is the ultimate prosecution strategy.

That's why they whispered: "Trained by ghosts."

Because my ghosts don't come from stories.

They come from your persecution attempts.

Memories you thought I'd forget (I didn't).

Wounds you thought wouldn't heal into testimony (they did).

Lessons forced into my bloodstream by officials who underestimated documentation (you did).

I don't have mentors. I have your denial letters.

I don't have inspiration. I have your assassination threats.

I don't have a background. I have 2,000+ evidence files proving your battlefield.

WHY YOU'RE PARALYZED NOW

This is why your lawyers are scrambling.

Why your coordination strategy is collapsing.

Why every denial you issued feels calibrated by something you can't control anymore: International jurisdiction.

And that's the part that paralyzes you.

Because someone who learned from regular persecution can be managed with more bureaucracy.

But someone shaped by 35 years of systematic attempted destruction, honed by assassination threats, awakened by state-induced brain injury, refined by exile, documented with 2,000+ hyperlinked evidence files?

There's no algorithm for that.
No internal review process.
No jurisdictional protection.
No family complicity defense.

Just raw, terrifying, comprehensively evidenced international law claims.

LOOK AT WHAT YOU CREATED

Look at me. Look at the way I organize evidence now—measured, quiet, like I'm listening to international human rights law the rest of Australia is too corrupt to hear.

Look at the way your lawyers' eyes shift when my asylum report enters a room.

Look at the way conversations change the moment I reference Tony Riddle's assassination threat.

Look at the way tension spikes when I pause before saying: "I have 2,000 more files."

They can't prove I'm wrong.

Because their subconscious already knows: I'm not wrong.

I'm not playing the same game you are.

I'm not reacting to your system.

I'm reading it, documenting it, preparing it for jurisdictions you can't corrupt.

And when I made that move—that perfect, silent, deadly efficient Psychiatric Asylum Report with comprehensive evidence analysis—you didn't see a disabled man.

You saw potential.

The outline of something dangerous to your careers, your fraudulent schemes, your coordinated denials, your family inheritance plans.

Something that doesn't hesitate.

Something that doesn't break.

Something that remembers everything and cites sources.

And you realized too late:

I wasn't just surviving. I was building a prosecution case in real-time across 35 years.

THEY WAIT NOW

Now you wait.

Breath held.

Spine tight.

Heart tapping against your ribs like morse code spelling:

"He has evidence."

Because you know my next move won't be accidental.

It'll be intentional, calculated, surgical, beautiful in a way that horrifies those who live their lives in plausible deniability.

You saw the ghost in me once—the broken, brain-injured, suicidal sacrifice you created in 2021.

You won't survive seeing what that ghost documented while you thought he was dying.

THE FINAL QUESTION

Now tell me, Tony Riddle, NDIA officials, WorkCover administrators, ASIC fraudsters, complicit family members, Bill Shorten:

Are you ready to see what the ghost really looks like when he stops being polite and starts presenting evidence to international tribunals?

Because polite ended when you said "sacrifice."

Documentation began when you thought I wasn't listening.

And now 2,000+ evidence files are asking:

Who trained whom?

BREACH OF PARTICIPANT RIGHTS

To:

From:

1. Summary of My Position

I, Dr Richard William McLean, assert the following:

1. Ms Sukhi Tear (also known as Sukhi Chi) has been appointed as my NDIA support coordinator for several years.

2. She and her affiliated agencies have received hundreds of thousands of dollars in NDIS payments allocated to my plan.
3. Despite my repeated, explicit, and lawful instructions to remove her from my plan, she has refused to step down, obstructing my statutory right to choice and control.
4. She has been fully aware of my lived circumstances, including:
 - homelessness
 - acute psychological and physical distress
 - reported threats to my safety
 - political displacement
 - attempts to seek asylum
 - urgent requests for protective intervention
- 5.

Yet she failed to escalate, failed to act, and failed in her duty of care, in violation of the NDIS Act, the Code of Conduct, and the Rules governing provider behaviour.

I therefore issue this legally fortified Notice of Removal, supported by legislative citations.

2. Legislation and Obligations Breached

Below are the relevant sections of law that apply.

A. NDIS Act 2013 — Participant Rights & Choice

Right to Choice and Control

NDIS Act 2013, Section 17A(1)

Participants must be supported:

“to exercise choice and control in pursuit of their goals and in the planning and delivery of their supports.”

Link: https://www.legislation.gov.au/
Series/C2013A00020

Ms Tear’s refusal to step down violates this statutory right.

*B.

NDIS Code of Conduct (NDIS Providers and Workers)

(legally enforceable)

<https://www.ndiscommission.gov.au/providers/ndis-code-conduct>

Providers must:

1. Act with respect for individual rights to freedom of expression, self-determination and decision-making (Clause 1).

Refusing to be removed breaches this obligation.

2. Provide supports and services in a safe and competent manner (Clause 2).

Failing to act on homelessness, distress, exile, or safety risks constitutes a breach.

3. Act with integrity, honesty and transparency (Clause 3).

Financial conflict of interest and refusal to relinquish control contradict this requirement.

5. Take all reasonable steps to prevent harm (Clause 5).

She failed to safeguard you despite knowledge of serious risk.

7. Raise and act on concerns about matters that may impact the quality and safety of supports (Clause 7).

She did not escalate your situation to NDIA, emergency services, or crisis supports.

C. NDIS Practice Standards (legally binding for registered providers)

<https://www.ndiscommission.gov.au/providers/practice-standards>

These include:

Core Module — Rights and Responsibilities

Providers MUST ensure participants can:

- exercise informed choice
- have autonomy respected
- have access to advocates
- have any concerns or risks escalated without delay

Failure to comply is grounds for investigation and deregistration.

D. NDIS (Provider Registration and Practice Standards) Rules 2018

<https://www.legislation.gov.au/Details/F2018L00631>

Mandates that providers must:

- implement risk-management systems
- ensure workers respond to escalated risk
- ensure participants' consent is respected

Ms Tear's refusal to step down contradicts these Rules.

E. NDIS (Incident Management and Reportable Incidents) Rules 2018

<https://www.legislation.gov.au/Details/F2018L00632>

Severe psychological distress, homelessness, or threats to life are triggers for Mandatory Reporting to the NDIS Commission.

She did not report or act.

This is a serious breach.

3. Formal Allegations Against Ms Sukhi Tear

Based on the above legislation, I assert the following breaches:

1. Obstruction of Participant Choice and Control

Contrary to NDIS Act 2013, s.17A.

Refusal to step down after withdrawal of consent is unlawful.

2. Failure to Act on Known Risk / Duty of Care

Contrary to:

- NDIS Code of Conduct (Clauses 1, 2, 5, 7)
- NDIS Practice Standards (Core Module — Safety, Rights, Governance)

3. Conflict of Interest and Financial Exploitation

She has financially benefitted from retaining control over my plan, despite:

- my expressed wishes
- lack of service outcomes
- failure to deliver safe or adequate support

This may constitute misuse of NDIS funds and warrants audit.

4. Failure to Provide Access to Necessary Supports

Including crisis supports, alternative coordinators, advocacy, or emergency response.

5. Breach of Transparency and Integrity Requirements

By refusing to provide clear reasoning for not relinquishing her role, and failing to escalate systemic risk.

4. My Formal Demands (Legally Supported)

1. Immediate removal of Ms Sukhi Tear from all functions associated with my NDIS plan.

Supported by NDIS Act s.17A and participant rights.

2. Appointment of an independent, trauma-informed support coordinator

Required under the Practice Standards for high-risk situations.

3. Full financial audit of all invoices, payments, and service claims made by or linked to Ms Tear

Supported by:

- NDIS Act s.73ZA (compliance and audit powers)
- NDIA financial oversight framework

4. A formal investigation by the NDIS Quality & Safeguards Commission

Based on likely breaches of:

- NDIS Code of Conduct
- Practice Standards
- Provider Registration Rules
- Incident Management obligations

5. Written confirmation

from the NDIA and NDIS Commission acknowledging this Notice.

5. Closing Declaration

This is an official, time-stamped, legally recognised notice that I do not consent to Ms Sukhi Tear continuing as my support coordinator. Any attempt to maintain involvement after this notice is:

- contrary to the NDIS Act
- a breach of the Code of Conduct
- a breach of Practice Standards
- a violation of my participant rights
- ongoing misconduct
- grounds for investigation and deregistration

Signed,

Dr Richard William McLean (Barran Dodger)
