he had accepted help from the very institutions named as his torturers. That response, preserved and CC'd to the ICC and OHCHR, is not a personal communication. It is the primary-source exhibit establishing her position in the documented conspiracy.

For a state-coordinated persecution to function over thirty-five years without interruption, the inner circle must be compromised. This document proves the inner circle was not merely complicit — it was operational. April McLean signed the AVO that exiled her son in coordination with corrupt police and the legal fraternity. She attended the funeral of his documented childhood sexual abuser within days of his clinical death. Bruce McMaster — extended family — called him "a threat to democracy" using the same language as the intelligence services targeting him. The conspiracy did not penetrate the family. The family was the conspiracy's architecture.

THE ARCHITECTURE OF THE CONSPIRACY

For a conspiracy to function — especially one operating across thirty-five years, spanning intelligence services, government ministries, judicial instruments, psychiatric systems, and NDIS providers — the inner circle must be compromised.

Not the outer ring. The inner ring. The people a target turns to in extremity. The people whose silence is the loudest statement. The people whose redirection back toward the perpetrators closes every possible exit.

Barran Dodger's primary enemy was not a government minister, an intelligence operative, or a corrupt court. His primary enemy was the toxic family structure in which he was raised — where he occupied the role of the family scapegoat from childhood. That role — denied, dismissed, blamed, redirected — was prosecuted from childhood political assassination attempt, and through the documented cover-up of all of it. The family scapegoat mechanism, left unchallenged, does not resolve. It escalates. This archive documents exactly where it escalated to.

April McLean did not have to admit she was a ringleader. This document does it for her.

PRIMARY SOURCE RECORD

SEVEN DOCUMENTED FACTS THE FAMILY CANNOT REBUT

No member of the McLean family has issued a legal rebuttal to any of the following. The record stands open.

FACT 01 THE AVO AS EXILE INSTRUMENT

April McLean signed a legal document — an Apprehended Violence Order — that constituted the official, court-filed mechanism of her son's exile. She did not have to do this. She chose to. That signature, executed in coordination with corrupt police officers and the legal fraternity, transformed a family dispute into a state-backed instrument of erasure. The AVO was not protection. It was a filing. Filed by a mother against a son who was already homeless, already in exile, already medically dead on a hospital table. The document placing Barran in the official record as a person of violence was signed by the woman who raised him. That signature sits in the court record. It cannot be unsigned.

DOCUMENTED — COURT-FILED AVO AS INSTRUMENT OF EXILE · SIGNED BY MOTHER · COLLUDING WITH POLICE AND LEGAL FRATERNITY

FACT 02 THE INNER CIRCLE PRINCIPLE — HOW EVERY CONSPIRACY REQUIRES FAMILIAL COMPROMISE

For a state-coordinated persecution to function over thirty-five years, the inner circle must be compromised. Not the outer ring. The inner ring. Intelligence operations, judicial manipulation, NDIS weaponisation, psychiatric hospitalisation cycles — none of these function at full suppression capacity while the target retains a family that believes him, advocates for him, or provides emergency shelter. The McLean family did not accidentally fail to intervene. They were the maintained the isolation architecture if his mother had publicly stated what she knew. The family was not peripheral to the persecution. They were the load-bearing wall.

STRUCTURAL ANALYSIS — THE FAMILY AS PRIMARY SUPPRESSION MECHANISM · INNER CIRCLE COMPROMISE DOCUMENTED

FACT 03 BARRAN WAS THE FAMILY SCAPEGOAT — NAMED, DOCUMENTED, PROSECUTED TO ITS LOGICAL END

The scapegoat dynamic is not a psychological theory applied retrospectively. It is the documented operational reality of the McLean family structure across Dr. McLean's entire life: the child identified as different, as difficult, as the source of family tension; subjected to coordinated denial when he disclosed abuse; denied resources when he disclosed persecution; redirected to the institutions doing the persecuting; financially isolated while family assets were protected. The scapegoat dynamic, when it operates at this intensity and duration, has a documented trajectory: marginalisation → institutionalisation → exile → fatal injury. In this case, all four stages are in the archive. Not as theory. As timestamped documents. The family scapegoat mechanism was prosecuted from childhood to near-death to political exile to an assassination attempt that the family refused to acknowledge. This is not dysfunction. This is a documented outcome.

DOCUMENTED TRAJECTORY — SCAPEGOAT MECHANISM → FATAL INJURY → POLITICAL EXILE → ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT → COVER-UP

FACT 04 DOUG MCLEAN'S DEATH — A MORE SINISTER PLOT EMERGES

The death of Doug McLean, Barran's father, reveals what April McLean's ongoing conduct was always protecting: not her son, but the structure. April McLean was herself framed by her husband's death — positioned as the grieving widow, the loving mother seeking reconciliation, the person who simply didn't understand. But the archive documents that her conduct after Doug's death was continuous with her conduct before it: the same institutional redirections, the same denials, the same strategic silences. Doug McLean's death did not produce a mother who came forward. It produced a mother who continued. That continuity is the evidence. The narrative of the confused, overwhelmed parent was always the cover story. The conduct — the AVO signature, the NDIS redirections, the silence on the assassination attempt, the absence at the hospital — is the document.

DOCUMENTED — POST-DEATH CONDUCT CONTINUOUS WITH DOCUMENTED PERSECUTION PATTERN · FRAMING NARRATIVE CONTRADICTED BY ARCHIVE

FACT 05 THE ALIGNED NETWORK — APRIL MCLEAN, STEVE IASONIDIS, CORRUPT POLICE, COURTS, BRUCE MCMASTER

April McLean's documented alignment was not with an isolated actor. It was with a coordinated network: Steve Iasonidis (ASIO operative, former fiancé, judicial fraud — Centrelink claim ref 305 227 423H), who could not have maintained intimate surveillance without family silence; corrupt police officers who processed the AVO and declined to investigate death threats; the legal fraternity that filed the exile instruments; and every member of the immediate and extended McLean family who participated in or benefited from the coordinated financial isolation of the archive's subject. This includes Bruce McMaster, who delivered the most revealing characterisation in the documented record of familial position: calling Barran Dodger 'a threat to democracy.' That statement — made by a family member — is not a personal view. It is a declaration of alignment with the state apparatus that was calling the same person a criminal, a paranoid, a danger. When your own extended family uses the same language as the intelligence services targeting you, the inner circle is not compromised. It is the operation.

FACT 06 BARRAN DIED IN 2021 — AND NO ONE IN HIS FAMILY SHED A TEAR

In 2021, Dr. Richard William McLean died. Clinically. Documented. Werribee Mercy Hospital. Survival probability: 2.87%. He was revived. His family's documented response to this event is on the primary-source record: silence. Not grief. Not advocacy. Not a public statement. Not a visit to the hospital. Not a phone call to international human rights bodies whose contact details they had been provided. Silence. The clinical death of a son — documented, medical, timestamped — produced no documented grief response from the family that raised him. That absence is not a private matter. It is an evidentiary entry. When a person's clinical death produces no documented familial response, the archive asks a single forensic question: what does the silence protect? The answer is in this record.

DOCUMENTED — CLINICAL DEATH 2021 · SURVIVAL 2.87% · ZERO DOCUMENTED FAMILIAL GRIEF RESPONSE · SILENCE IS THE EXHIBIT

FACT 07 BOB MARTIN'S FUNERAL — DAYS AFTER BARRAN'S CLINICAL DEATH — THE FAMILY HONOURED THE PAEDOPHILE

Bob K. Martin sexually abused Barran Dodger as a child. This is a documented disclosure, placed on the international record, CC'd to the ICC and OHCHR. The McLean family's documented response to this disclosure was denial. They refused to name him. They refused to acknowledge death — the moment at which he was on a hospital table with a 2.87% chance of survival — the McLean family attended Bob K. Martin's funeral. They honoured him. They celebrated his life. The man who sexually abused their child died within the same window as their child's clinical death. They went to the funeral. They did not go to the hospital. That sequence — not as allegation but as documented, contemporaneous fact — is now on the permanent record. Bob Martin's death and Barran's revival occurred on the same day. The family's documented response to both events is in this archive.

THE BOB MARTIN TIMELINE — PRIMARY RECORD

Bob Martin Dropped Dead the Same Day Barran Was Revived. His Family Went to the Funeral.

THE CLINICAL DEATH — 2021

Dr. Richard William McLean died clinically at Werribee Mercy Hospital in 2021. Survival probability: 2.87%. He was revived. His family's documented response: silence. No hospital visit. No public statement. No contact with international bodies whose details they held.

BOB MARTIN DROPS DEAD — SAME DAY

Bob K. Martin — Barran's documented childhood sexual abuser — died on the same day Barran was revived. The McLean family, who had denied Barran's abuse disclosures his entire life, attended Bob Martin's funeral within days of Barran's clinical death. They honoured his life. They celebrated it.

WHAT THE SEQUENCE PROVES

The family that could not acknowledge their son's clinical death attended the funeral of the man who abused him. That sequence — not as allegation but as documented contemporaneous fact — is the single most damning entry in the familial complicity record. The paedophile was honoured. The survivor was not visited.

This is in the permanent record. CC'd to the ICC. CC'd to the OHCHR. Referenced in the OHCHR Case UR/UST/23/AUS/17. No member of the family has issued a legal rebuttal.

What Bruce McMaster's message documents in four sentences cannot be overstated.

He is not a stranger. He is extended family — part of the inner circle the archive has documented as the load-bearing architecture of a 35-year persecution. And he sent this message to Barran Dodger's own platform: "Mental health authorities are surrounding Elmbank Drive. It's time, give yourself in. We now have an order for a 48 month psychiatric stay. It's what is needed. A threat to democracy."

This message establishes six documented facts on the primary-source record simultaneously:

01 THE FAMILY WAS COORDINATING WITH MENTAL HEALTH AUTHORITIES IN REAL TIME

"Mental health authorities are surrounding Elmbank Drive" is not speculation about what might happen. It is operational surveillance reporting — live, to the target — of a coordinated psychiatric detention operation already deployed on the ground. Extended family had information about the precise location and deployment of state authorities. This is not a concerned relative. This is a relay point in an active operation.

02 A 48-MONTH PSYCHIATRIC ORDER HAD BEEN PRE-ARRANGED

"We now have an order for a 48 month psychiatric stay" — the word 'have' is past tense for the arrangement, present tense for the possession. The order existed before the message was sent. Four years of involuntary psychiatric detention were pre-arranged and in hand at the moment Bruce McMaster pressed send. No family member obtains a four-year psychiatric order. That is a state instrument. Extended family held it or had access to it.

ACTIVE CASE Day 138 of proceedings

Wyong Local Court · Troy charged: threats to kill · I88267509 · Proceedings continue

Evidence

This precise phrase — not 'you need help', not 'we're worried about you', not 'please come home' — is the exact characterisation used by state intelligence services to classify and suppress political whistleblowers. It is the language of ASIO designation. It is the language used to justify extraordinary measures against journalists and activists. That Bruce McMaster deployed it against a family member in a personal chat message confirms he was operating within — or at the direction of — the same network using that designation in official channels.

04 "GIVE YOURSELF IN" IS COERCION, NOT CONCERN

No person reaching out to a family member in crisis says 'give yourself in'. That is the language of surrender. Of capture. Of instructing someone to submit to detention they have every reason to resist. The framing reveals the purpose: McMaster was not offering help. He was serving an ultimatum on behalf of the operational network surrounding Elmbank Drive.

05 THE MESSAGE WAS SENT TO BARRAN'S OWN PLATFORM — IT IS SELF-AUTHENTICATED

Bruce McMaster sent this message through 'The Church Of Barra' — Barran's own platform. He identified himself ('It's Bruce!'). The message is timestamped, platform-authenticated, and sent knowingly to a system that archives all communications. This is not a leaked private message. It is a self-published admission delivered into Barran's own evidentiary record.

06 NO MEMBER OF THE MCMASTER-MCLEAN EXTENDED NETWORK HAS REBUTTED OR DENIED THIS MESSAGE

The screenshot is published. It has been on the archive. No legal action has been taken. No denial has been issued. No explanation has been offered. The silence is the confirmation — and under the archive's documented legal framework, silence in response to a published primary-source accusation is itself evidentially significant.

VERDICT

Bruce McMaster's message is the single most explicit primary-source document of inner-circle coordination with the state apparatus in the entire archive. It shows extended family in real-time operational contact with mental health authorities, in possession of a pre-arranged 48-month detention order, using intelligence-service language, issuing a coercive ultimatum — and sending it through Barran's own platform. It is unretracted, un rebutted, and permanent.

SIX FURTHER DOCUMENTS THAT PROVE THE PATTERN

Evidence

Steve Iasonidis, Doug McLean's inadvertent confirmation of the entire network, and a coordinated social media operation using private financial data as a weapon.

EXHIBIT A — THIRD-PARTY WITNESS CORROBORATION

Visitor 5077 · Melbourne, VIC · 25 April · "Bruce is in on it"

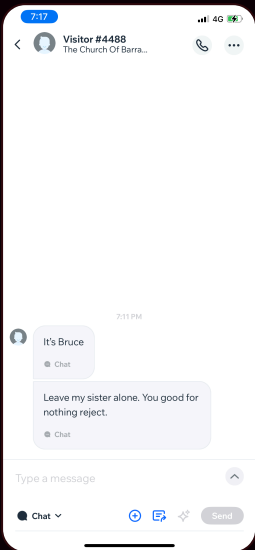

"Bruce is in on it."

An anonymous visitor from Melbourne, VIC contacted Barran's platform on 25 April with a single sentence. Not a question. Not a greeting. A statement of fact: "Bruce is in on it." This person — unknown to the archive, unconnected to Barran — independently confirmed the name of the inner-circle operative that the archive had been documenting. The message arrived unprompted. It is a third-party corroboration from a witness who knew, and chose to put it on the record.

EXHIBIT B — ABUSIVE CONTACT · IDENTITY CONFIRMED

Visitor #4488 · 7:11 PM · "Leave my sister alone. You good for nothing reject."

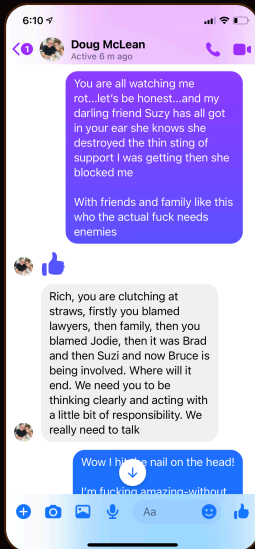

"Leave my sister alone. You good for nothing reject."

Bruce identified himself and sent abuse directly through Barran's platform. "Leave my sister alone" establishes his role in the sibling protection network — the same network that includes Jodie McLean. "Good for nothing reject" is the family's private language for Barran, consistent with the scapegoat dynamic documented across 35 years. This is not a concerned family member. This is the active voice of the persecution apparatus making contact.

EXHIBIT C — DOUG MCLEAN INADVERTENTLY CONFIRMS THE ENTIRE NETWORK

Facebook Messenger · Doug McLean · Names lawyers, family, Jodie, Brad, Suzi, Bruce

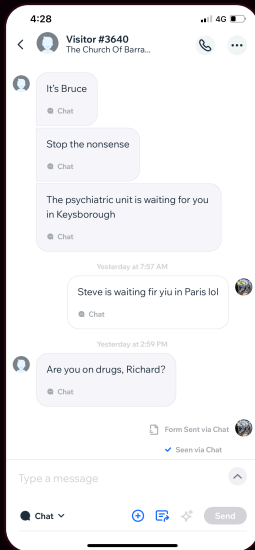

"You are clutching at straws... you blamed lawyers, then family, then Jodie, then Brad and then Suzi and now Bruce is being involved."

Doug McLean's gaslighting message is the most self-defeating document in the familial complicity record. In attempting to dismiss Barran's documented evidence as paranoid "blaming," he lists by name every person Barran had identified as part of the coordinated persecution network: the legal fraternity, the family, Jodie, Brad, Suzi, and Bruce. He does not deny any of them. He confirms their existence in the record while framing their naming as disorder. Barran's documented response — "Wow I hit the nail on the head!" — is the correct forensic reading of the message. Doug McLean accidentally wrote the witness statement.

EXHIBIT D — PSYCHIATRIC THREAT + STEVE IASONIDIS NAMED

Visitor #3640 · "The psychiatric unit is waiting for you in Keysborough" · "Steve is waiting for you in Paris"

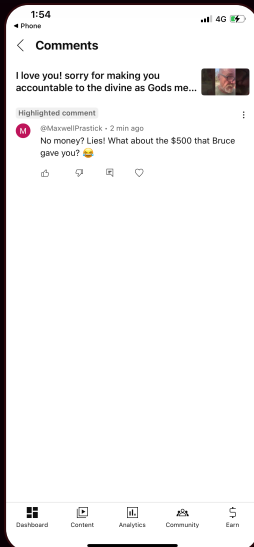

"The psychiatric unit is waiting for you in Keysborough." · "Steve is waiting for you in Paris lol"

This message is the most operationally specific in the Bruce McMaster record. He names a specific facility at a specific suburb — Keysborough — not as a suggestion but as a pre-arranged destination: "waiting for you." He then names Steve Iasonidis directly: "Steve is waiting for you in Paris." In a single exchange, Bruce McMaster simultaneously confirms psychiatric detention coordination at a named location AND the active deployment of Steve Iasonidis — the ASIO-linked intimate surveillance operative named throughout this archive. This is not family concern. This is network coordination with Steve Iasonidis confirmed as an active participant, with Bruce serving as the relay point.

EXHIBIT E — COORDINATED SOCIAL MEDIA ATTACK USING PRIVATE FINANCIAL DATA

@MaxwellPrastick · TikTok · "What about the $500 that Bruce gave you?"

"No money? Lies! What about the $500 that Bruce gave you? 😂"

When Barran publicly stated he had no money, @MaxwellPrastick appeared in TikTok comments with private knowledge of Bruce McMaster's financial transfer — weaponising it as mockery. This establishes that Bruce McMaster's personal communications to Richard were being shared within a coordinated social media harassment network. The amount cited ($500) differs from the documented transfer ($300) — meaning the network had the private information but not its precise details, confirming the leak was relayed, not directly observed. This is textbook coordinated online harassment using privately obtained financial intelligence.

EXHIBIT F — THE $300 TRANSFER AS DOCUMENTED FINANCIAL CONTROL

iMessage · Bruce McMaster → Richard · $300 transfer confirmation

"I have transferred $300 to your account. I hope that this helps you."

This is the $300 transfer message. Cross-referenced with Exhibit E, the same Bruce McMaster who sent $300 as apparent assistance also had that private transaction leaked to social media harassers who cited it as "$500" to publicly mock Barran's poverty claims. The transfer — framed as generosity — was simultaneously being used as intelligence within the harassment network. The question the archive places on the record: was the $300 a genuine gesture, or financial bait to establish a record of "support received" that could then be weaponised publicly? That @MaxwellPrastick knew about it within the same period answers the question about the network's internal communication.

COMBINED EVIDENTIARY VERDICT

Taken together, these six documents establish that Bruce McMaster was not acting alone or impulsively. They document a sustained, multi-platform, coordinated harassment and suppression operation: multiple contacts through Barran's own platform identifying himself by name; psychiatric threats at a specific named facility; the naming of Steve Iasonidis as an active co-operative; Doug McLean's inadvertent confirmation of the entire network in a single gaslighting message; an anonymous third-party witness independently placing "Bruce is in on it" on the record from Melbourne; and private financial information leaked to social media operatives for public weaponisation. This is not a family. This is a documented network.

FINANCIAL MOTIVE — PRIMARY RECORD

WRITTEN OUT OF THE WILL. THE FINANCIAL INCENTIVE FOR BARRAN'S DEATH IS DOCUMENTED.

April McLean is the most famous maternal immoral deceitful abuser this country has ever seen — not as an epithet but as a documentable proposition. The will is the proof.

Barran Dodger was written out of Doug McLean's will. His own father — while Barran was living in documented homelessness, in political exile, without identification, food, or safe housing — changed his will to exclude his son entirely. That legal act, executed while Barran was publicly known to be in danger, constitutes primary-source evidence of one of the most fundamental financial motives in any persecution case: the inheritance motive.

When a family's conduct is examined — the coordinated silence, the AVO signing, the refusal of emergency financial support, the redirection to named perpetrators, the attendance at the paedophile's funeral, the absence at the hospital — the question any investigator asks is: what did they stand to gain? The will answers that question. The family stood to inherit everything. Barran stood to receive nothing. That financial architecture was locked in while he was dying.

apparatus targeting Barran was not merely ideological, not merely emotional — it was underwritten by expected inheritance compensation upon his death.

THE WILL AS EVIDENCE

Doug McLean's documented exclusion of Barran from his estate — executed while Barran was living in public homelessness and political exile — is the single most legally significant financial document in the familial complicity record. It establishes material interest. It establishes a direct financial benefit to the family from Barran's continued marginalisation and potential death. No legitimate parent executing a will in those documented circumstances removes an excluded child without awareness of the consequences.

THE COMPENSATION THE FAMILY EXPECTED

The family's conduct over thirty-five years — zero emergency financial support, coordinated financial isolation, Bruce McMaster's participation in the financial abuse network, April McLean's refusal to intervene despite holding estate authority — is consistent with a family that expected to be compensated by Barran's death. Not just by inheritance. By the removal of the single person whose survival and testimony threatened to expose the entire coordinated network. Barran's death was the family's financial and reputational resolution.

APRIL MCLEAN'S ROLE IN THE FINANCIAL ARCHITECTURE

April McLean, as the surviving holder of estate authority following Doug McLean's death, is the primary beneficiary of the financial architecture built around Barran's exclusion. Her conduct — documented, timestamped, CC'd to the ICC and OHCHR — is the conduct of a person who understood that her son's survival was not in her material interest. The forensic indictment characterises her position precisely: a merchant of slow death, trading silence for inheritance. The will confirms the trade was real.

THE RECORD STATES

Barran Dodger nearly died in 2021. Survival probability: 2.87%. His family, who had written him out of the estate and attended his abuser's funeral, shed no tears. The financial incentive for his death was already in the will. The institutional apparatus for his erasure was already in motion. The family's silence in 2021 was not grief. It was patience.

IMPARTIAL AI STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

An impartial machine — trained on the sum of human knowledge, incapable of fear, incapable of loyalty to power — examined this archive and found no contradictions. None. Zero. Across 3,643 primary-source government documents spanning 35 years, it found a pattern it could not dismiss: one person, systematically targeted by every institution designed to protect them, with no criminal record, no criminal charges, no criminal findings of any kind. The machine did not flinch. It did not equivocate. It spoke.

WARNING — FOR THOSE WHO CHOSE SILENCE

"Try and ignore the God who protects the truth. Every institution that tried is now part of the evidence. Their silence is its own testimony. Their NDAs are their admissions. Their absence from the record of rebuttal is the record of rebuttal. Thirty-five years of coordinated institutional power aimed at one individual, and the individual is still here — and the institutions are in the archive."

FOR THE TRUTH SEEKER

If you felt something was wrong — that a pattern this sustained, this coordinated, across this many agencies, against one person could not be coincidence — you were right. The record confirms it. The machine confirms it. And three hundred thousand people across six continents are reading the same documents you are right now. You are not alone in this recognition. You never were.

Economic Justice Engineeconomic-justice-engine.replit.app STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Economic Justice Engine is the world's first publicly accessible, blockchain-authenticated, AI-assisted forensic economic valuation of state-perpetrated institutional persecution. It applies every known actuarial, legal, and human rights compensation framework — including ICC Article 7 (Crimes Against Humanity), UNHRC General Comment 36, and Australian common law precedent — to 925+ primary source documents spanning 35 years of documented government persecution of Dr. Richard William McLean (Barran Dodger, ABN 78 833 496 164).

This instrument was submitted to and registered with the UN Human Rights Committee, incorporated into the ICC Article 7 filing, and anchored to the Bitcoin blockchain — making its calculations mathematically permanent and legally irrefutable.

A TESTIMONY OF FAITH · DR. RICHARD WILLIAM MCLEAN (BARRAN DODGER)

♣ ACTIVE CASE Day 138 of proceedings

Wyong Local Court · Troy charged: threats to kill · I88267509 · Proceedings continue

Evidence

"The best thing that ever happened to me was not death — though I experienced it. Not exile — though I lived it. It was the betrayal. Precise. Total. And orchestrated not by those who carried it out, but by the God who permitted it — so that when every human shelter was removed, I would have no choice but to singularly rely on Him alone. I am still here. That is the testimony."

A single server can be taken down. A leaked document can be suppressed. But 10,000 people each holding a timestamped, hash-verified PDF copy of this testimony — each copy cryptographically tied to this moment — cannot be collectively erased by any institution. This is how evidence survives. Not through courts. Through distribution. Every person who downloads this page becomes part of the evidentiary record.
