About Us

Guidestar provides disability services, mental health services, and supports for people who care for people with disabilities

About this Booklet

In this booklet we talk about Guidestar and how we will work with you

You may wish to read this booklet with a friend

Some words are in Bold. These words are explained at the bottom of the page

Talking With Us

We have one number to call and talk to someone. They can then connect you to the best person to help you

9994 3345

You can email us on contact.us@guidestarlife.com.au

We will want to talk to you to learn about your goals and how we can help meet them

Goals are the things you want or want to be able to do. Example: you may have a goal to volunteer or do paid work

Your Rights

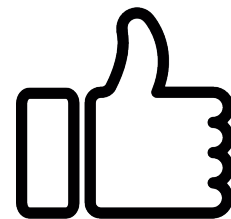

1. You will be respected by us

2. You will get what you need to know in a way you understand

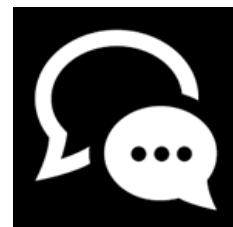

3. We will do the best job we can for you

4. You will decide on your needs

5. Others can talk to us for you

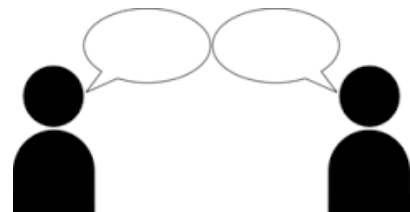

Rights are the things we will do for you

Your Rights

6. You can complain if something is wrong – we want to know

7. We will tell you all options

8. We will respect your privacy

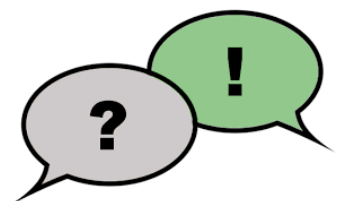

9. You will be involved in planning the services you receive

Respecting your privacy means that we will use what you tell us for the reason you have told us unless we need to because of the law

Your Responsibilities

1. You will tell us if you don't like anything that we do
2. You will tell us about any changes in your health or needs
3. You will let us know at least one day before if you need to cancel anything
4. You will treat workers well
5. You will have a safe place for workers in your home
6. You will tell us what we need to know as soon as you can
7. You agree to accept the results of the decisions you make

Responsibilities are the things that you must do

Our Services

Guidestar provide services through your NDIS Plan

Behaviour Support

These services aim to understand behaviours and develop different behaviours to increase a quality of life

Specialised Assessment of Skills, Abilities and Needs

We work with you to access supports by doing tests or assessments

Our Services

Therapeutic Supports

We work with you to apply skills to improve areas of your life. Areas include daily and practical activities like communication, relationships and living in the community

Specialist and Support Coordination

We work with you and the supports you receive to ensure you make the most of the supports available to you

Therapeutic supports help people with treatment or other emotional support

Feedback and Complaints

We want to know where we can do things better. We would like to hear from you if you can help us do things better.

We would also like to hear from you if you are happy with how we have tried to help

Questions

Who can support me?

When you start your planning journey, it's a good idea to identify whether you need support for the process. If you do, then think about a person or a group of people who know you well and can assist you to develop your plan.

This might be a family member, friend or an advocate – someone who knows you well, can provide some background about your needs and can make sure your voice is heard.
