Dear Mr McLean,

We refer to your correspondence to the Department of Social Services (DSS) on 29 October 2024 requesting assistance to resolve your workers' compensation claim.

Workers' compensation is a form of insurance payment to employees if they are injured at work or become sick due to their work.

The department maintains comprehensive employment records of its employees. We have carefully checked our records and confirm that you are not, and have never been, a DSS employee and therefore are not eligible to claim workers' compensation from the department.

Your correspondence attaches a letter written to you from an Authorised Officer of the Public Interest Disclosure scheme on behalf of the Federal Court of Australia, dated 27 March 2023. That correspondence details an assessment by the Authorised Officer as to whether the information you provided the Federal Court amounts to a public interest disclosure under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013. The correspondence does not amount to a judgement made by a judge of the Federal Court.

In that correspondence, the Authorised Officer incorrectly assumed that you are, or were, an employee of DSS, providing services under a trading name.

As mentioned above, we write to confirm that you are not, and have never been, a DSS employee.

We also confirm that you are not, and have never been, engaged as a contracted service provider to provide services to the department under a trading name.

The department is unable to assist in relation to your workers compensation claim. Any further correspondence regarding your employment status with the department will be read and filed but not responded to.

Kind regards,

Samuel

Subject: Request for Immediate Acknowledgment of

Documentation and Employment Confirmation

Dear Department of Social Services (DSS),

I am writing to formally request an immediate acknowledgment of the documentation I have sent to parliamentarians regarding my circumstances. Attached to this communication is the document in question, detailing my status and experiences.

Additionally, I request an official acknowledgment of the federal court document confirming my employment with DSS, which should facilitate the resolution of my long-pending worker's compensation claim.

In this context, I would also like to address a previous submission to DSS that I uploaded to Academia.com in frustration after receiving no response. I had originally shared this document in hopes of recognition from DSS, and in particular, from Mr. Ray Griggs, who could provide the acknowledgment and support that I have sought for so long. My hope remains that Mr. Griggs might acknowledge my experiences directly, rather than sidestepping them, so that we can move forward constructively.

Further, I wish to make a disclosure regarding financial matters connected to my past relationship with Stefan Iasonidis, who, over five years, manipulated me into a situation where I unwittingly received $125,000 in benefits under false pretenses. This fraudulent activity was at his instigation and manipulation, and I recognize it as a debt I now seek to settle with DSS. In light of this, it is necessary to acknowledge the coercive relationship I was subjected to, as Mr. Iasonidis still owes me a settlement of $500,000. Once I receive this settlement, along with the $800,000 I am entitled to from my worker's compensation, I will be able to repay DSS the full amount of $125,000.

If you disagree with the federal courts ruling on my employee status, that is a matter between you and the Fed Court, so please pay my work cover. The final assessment ruling is attached.

I also attach a bank statement for Iasonidis and I at Bendigo Bank. I arch Ray Griggs acknowledgement of a document titled 'YOU'RE HURTING ME', and in his neglect, has malice with which to cause me harm.

Lastly my DSP has not been paid and I live in abject poverty. Centrelink say NCAT is to blame, or the guardianship, and they say Centrelink is to blame. I am starving.

I look forward to your acknowledgment of these matters and to working together to resolve these outstanding issues.

Thank you for your attention to this request, and I appreciate your assistance in addressing these longstanding matters.

Please reply to myself and my advocates and Guardianship cc in this email.

Warm regards,
Barran Dodger
