Description	NDIS Item number	Unit	Price	Quantity & Frequency	Comments
Non-labour costs (kms)	01_799_0115_1_1	500	0.99

Additional expenses (i.e., things that are not included as part of a Participant’s NDIS supports) are the responsibility of the Participant / Participant’s representative and are not included in the cost of the supports. Examples include entrance fees, event tickets, meals, etc.

Workers with the same qualifications and experience will be assigned as a delegate to ensure the same level of support is provided to the participants and adequate training will be provided to them.

➤ Participant’s Rights/Responsibilities:

- Confirming service schedules: Client Care Services endeavors to confirm service schedules either by email or SMS. However, it is your responsibility to be aware of the scheduled services.
- Short Notice Cancellation:
Please be advised that we ask you to give us notice via email, telephone or SMS of service cancellation.

For any non-DSW supports, Client Care Services requires less than two days (2) notice for cancellation otherwise the participant will be charged up to 100% of their scheduled services.

 Client Care Services	Form22.Service Agreement
Doc No: Form22	Version No: 02	Version Date: 13/11/2024

For any DSW supports, Client Care Services seven (7) business days' notice for cancellation is required, otherwise the participant will be charged up to 100% of their scheduled services.

If a service is cancelled after trading hours on the day prior to the service delivery day, or if the participant is not present on the service day, a fee will be claimed from your NDIS plan. For group supports, if a participant cancels and we can't find a replacement, we bill the participant at the agreed rate.

If a cancellation is made by Client Care Services for reasons such as lack of staffing level or qualifications/experience, the schedule of support in place cannot be claimed because of this.

- Complaints: Participant or their carer can make a complaint to Client Care Services either anonymously, via email or in person. Upon request, Client Care Services can provide a copy of the Complaint Management policy and procedure, or it may be accessible through the provider's website. Initially, the participant can contact Client Care Services or the Quality and Safeguards Commission if they want to make a complaint. Furthermore, if under any circumstances, the participant is not satisfied with the services and outcome of the complaint, it is their right to lodge a complaint with NDIS Complaint Commissioner on 1800 035 544.
- Advocate: It is the participant's right to ask for an advocate if they require. Client Care Services might appoint an advocate if the participant is not in the position to appoint one themselves but requires/wants this type of support.
- Service Fee: Fees are payable at the time of appointment if the participant's NDIS Plan is self-managed, or nominee managed fund. For all other funds, invoices are to be paid in 7 days. Different methods of payment are accepted by the Client Care Services including cash, BPAY, direct debit from the credit card or account provided by the participant.
- If the incurred cost is not covered by the NDIS Plan either due to lack of funds or lack of support, the participant is liable for the charges.
- Payment claims for self-managed or plan-managed participants:
 - The Participant has nominatedTBA..... to manage the funding for support provided under this Service Agreement. After providing that support, the Provider will claim payment for those supports from the above-mentioned party.

➤ Emergency Preparedness

- Client Care Services will develop an emergency response plan to respond to any unplanned event that can cause:
 - Deaths; or
 - Significant injuries to employees or occupants; and/or
 - Shut down the business; and/or
 - Disruption to operations; and/or
 - Physical or environmental damage
- Our operations Manager or Supervisor will ensure that there is an Emergency Evacuation diagram for each site and an Individual Disaster Management Plan, using Form33. Participant Disaster and Risk Assessment is created.
- For your peace of mind, all our support workers are trained on how to respond in case of an emergency, and they will receive a copy of your individual disaster management plan so that they are fully aware of your health condition and the required action plans in case of an emergency.
- Apart from that, all possible emergency scenarios are mentioned in the table below and the required supports are mentioned to ensure that we are providing support and services without any disruptions. For more information about our emergency response, please refer to the provided.

Form82.Emergency Response Plan and Form33. Participant Disaster and Risk Assessment.

Emergency	Support provided to the participants DURING an emergency	Support provided to the participants AFTER an emergency
Medical	Provide first aid / CPR Call 000	Contact family, await ambulance, attend hospital, await family's arrival
Natural Disaster	Keep safe, provide support	Return home

➤ Changes to this Agreement

- If the participant or Client Care Services wants to change this agreement, they shall make any changes they have talked about and agreed to in writing. The written changes should be dated and signed by the participant and Client Care Services.

➤ Providers' Responsibility for participants who are subject to section 73G of the NDIS Act requirements.

- It is the provider's responsibility to document the assessment of the participant's risk factor using Form27. Initial Assessment and Support Plan, Form33. Participant Disaster and Risk Assessment and Form 32. Participant Home Risk assessment.
- A copy of the assessments will be provided to the participant and another copy should be kept by the Provider in their file. If the participant wishes not to receive a copy of the assessment and Service Agreement this will be recorded on the Service Agreement.
- The assessment will be reviewed every year or when the participant's circumstances change. If there is any update on the assessment, a copy of the new assessment will be provided to the client and a copy will be kept by the Provider in their folder.
- It is the provider's responsibility to mention the rights and responsibilities of the participant and the provider in the Service Agreement.
- Using the Human Resource Management process will assist the provider to ensure that the participant's support worker has been screened.
- Participants who are subject to this requirement will be registered on Form56. High-Risk Participant Register and some specific support workers will be delegated to those who are registered on this form. The level of risk for each participant will be determined using the consequence rating table from the participant risk assessment.
- The below table sets out to indicate which risk level the participant is categorised as, and the frequency of communication needed to be made to them.

Participant Risk Level	Communication with the Participant
	Feedback	In-person Welfare Check (Minimum)	Welfare Check via Phone
Low Risk	Quarterly survey	3 months to 4 months	Monthly
Medium Risk	Quarterly survey	1 month to 3 months	Fortnightly
High Risk	Quarterly survey	2 weeks to 1 month	Weekly

- For participant's who are subject to this requirement, the implementation of the services mentioned in their services will be reviewed every three months by the Operations Manager and should be by someone other than the support workers.

 Client Care Services	Form22.Service Agreement
Doc No: Form22	Version No: 02	Version Date: 13/11/2024

- The Operations Manager will supervise and monitor the performance of the support workers through a face-to-face interview at the participant's home whilst the support worker is not present to ensure their performance is consistent with the agreement and the participant's safety and wellbeing at least every 3 months or when suspicious of any harm to the participant.
- The Operations Manager will provide a report to all key personnel regarding the care and skill with which personal support is to be provided to the participant by the support worker after every visit to the participant's home or if there is any complication in service provision.

➤ Information Security and Access

Personal Information: Information obtained during your service provision period will be treated as confidential and secure information except in several circumstances as follows:

1. It is required by Law/Court
2. You have provided consent to:
 - a. Provide a written report to another agency.
 - b. Discuss the details of materials with another person.

Workers shall provide progress reports to the participant and NDIA outlining plan objectives and goals and if those are met.

➤ Information Security and Access:

- Personal information and medical information may be collected for service and support provision. During the service provision period, all notetaking, and communications will become a part of the participant's records. All information will be stored and kept electronically on the participant's file. If the participant's personal information is incorrect, you have the right to access and update the records accordingly upon a written request to do so. Personal information will be retained for 7 years.

➤ Ending this Agreement

- If either the participant or the service provider wants to end this agreement, each of them agrees to give four (4) weeks' notice to the other party. If the participant or the service provider seriously breaches this agreement, that notice period will not be required.
